

Acknowledgment of Participation: WAIVER and RELEASE of LIABILITY

Parents should be aware of the possible risks that are inherent in the nature of some of the activities. There risks include, but are not limited to, the potential for accidents or illness while participating. Every attempt is made to minimize the existing risks through proper sports equipment, safe facilities, and sound safety practices. However, parents should realize these risks couldn't be eliminated.

By affixing your child's name to the waiver, you understand that your child is participating in the TRI-LAKE FC STREET BALL EVENT at your own risk, and hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless, TRI-LAKE FC, its staff members, and its directors from any liability in connection with the activity. In addition, you understand that this event carries no medical or accident insurance, which benefits you, should your child be injured in this soccer event.

I affirm that I am aware of my child's physical condition, that they are voluntarily participating, I am aware that such participation may result in possible injury to my child as a result of the nature of the sport, and that I am assuming any risk for my child that may be involved in the sport. In addition, I do hereby release, Tri-Lake FC, its staff members, and its directors of any and all responsibility of liability in case of any personal injury sustained by my child or damage of property of others caused by my child while participating in this soccer event. I have read and understand the above statements and will carry them out to the best of my abilities.
